

No, New Jersey should not weaken our policy re the "no calls list." I pay extra just to block my calls and still they come in - so why would I want to pay extra if solicters calls go through even easier!